

Muslim Appreciation Month comes to California

 americanthinker.com/blog/2016/08/muslim\_appreciation\_month\_comes\_to\_california.html

California is a place where madness rules the day – a place that forever pushes the bleeding edge of idiotic trends, foolish ideas, dangerous public policy, communism masked as socialism masked as progressivism masked as liberalism masked as Democrats, and the whole enchilada of what we now refer to as political correctness.

So it should come as no surprise that California would lead the (wrong) way when Muslim Brotherhood front group CAIR joined forces with dhimmi state assemblyman Bill Quirk to propose a resolution (which passed unanimously) to designate August as Muslim Appreciation Month. Because, as Quirk reminds us, it's only right that we recognize "[t]he myriad of invaluable contributions of Muslim Americans to California" (here, here, and here).

So this month Californians are encouraged to go out of their way – even more than normal – to kowtow to Islam as they celebrate a contrived notion about Muslim contributions to our society. (I guess it will be a kind of practice run for when the stakes are even higher and it's a year-round kind of a thing.)

And by the way, so what if Muslims contribute some positive things to our society? I mean, there are enough here that one would hope so. But who knows? Irrespective of said contributions, do we have Hindu Appreciation Month, Jewish Appreciation Month, Working Single Moms Appreciation Month, You Name It Appreciation Month? Not that I want to start with this nonsense, but I'm just making the point that this is dhimmitude, pure and simple.

Providing much needed perspective, Creeping Sharia organized a list that highlights some Muslims' contributions to the quality of life in California just this year alone.
